

SPECIES & WATERS COVERED

- TROUT: From small mountain streams only a few feet wide, to the vast limestone loughs, Richie can guide you on them all. Evening dry fly sessions are a speciality.

- SALMON & SEA TROUT: In season Ireland is famous for it's many wonderful venues for both Atlantic Salmon and Sea Trout. And whether you fish lures or fly fish we have access to some of Ireland's best waters.

- PIKE: Ireland is world renowned for its quality Pike fishing and noted for large fish. We cater for this all year but particularly in the winter months. Richie has caught over 100 Pike in excess of 20lb and 3 over the magical 30lb mark. He also specializes in fly fishing for Pike, a growing area of our sport.

- BASS: Ireland's coastline is full of many beaches and rocky areas, perfect feeding grounds for Bass. In season lure and fly fishing is becoming really popular for Bass, and Richie can guide you to some of the best areas.

ABOUT RICHIE

Richie is an angling guide based in Dublin. He specializes in fishing for Trout, Pike, Salmon, Sea Trout and Bass. Richie has a vast experience fishing many of Ireland's best fisheries up and down the country, and also has a lot of "lesser Known " waters available too. Richie has a particular interest in fly fishing. He has represented both Leinster and Ireland in this sport at both home and abroad.

Richie has contributed to many books on fishing in Ireland over the years, including many by leading angling journalist John Bailey. Richie is a co presenter and producer of 2 recent films on fishing in Ireland by Anglersview Media.

- Follow The Fly – A Mayfly Season in Ireland.
- Sea to Stream – A Salmon and Sea Trout Season.

Both of these films have had great reviews in the angling press and Richie is currently working on a series of 6 more films.

Richie was a consultant and also featured in the acclaimed BBC series " Tales from the Riverbank " filmed in Ireland by the Natural History Unit.
